

PROTESTS & DEMONSTRATIONS

DO

Exercise your right to peacefully assemble

Engage in thoughtful and constructive discourse

Voice your opinion while respecting the rights of others

DON'T

Be physically violent or threaten violence

Obstruct egress or operations

Cause damage to property

UNLAWFUL PROTEST

- Intentionally blocking entrances, stairwells, or corridors
- Intentionally obstructing or seriously impairing sponsored/authorized activities
- Intruding upon a private office or entering a room/meeting space without approval (trespass)
- Being disruptive immediately outside of rooms occupied for classes, study, and research
- Using signs indoors, supported by standards or sticks
- Intentionally creating a noise disturbance that interferes with sponsored/authorized activities
- Violence or threats of violence against people or property
- Using amplified sound or music without a proper permit
- Camping on University of Utah property

RESOURCES

OFFICE OF THE DEAN
OF STUDENTS

UNIVERSITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

CAMPUS SCHEDULING

FREE SPEECH FAQs

POLICY 1-007:
UNIVERSITY SPEECH
POLICY

POLICY 6-400:
STUDENT RIGHTS &
RESPONSIBILITIES

CONSEQUENCES FOR STUDENTS, FACULTY, STAFF, AND COMMUNITY MEMBERS COULD INCLUDE:

- Students: University discipline ranging from probation to suspension, and criminal trespass and disorderly conduct charges
- Faculty and staff: University discipline including up to termination, and criminal trespass and disorderly conduct charges
- Community members: Criminal trespass and disorderly conduct charges

If tents go up or unlawful occupancy or trespass occurs, we will enforce the law.